House 1951 Argelès-sur-Mer

Located in the popular area of the village of Argelès-sur-Mer, we offer you for purchase this charming house, with a surface area of 110 m² and very good amenities. It is made up of 2 large bedrooms, 1 bathroom, 2 toilets, a 3rd bedroom with dressing room and office of 8m², a large living room of 34m² with secure fireplace opening onto the pleasant and generous terrace of a land area of 443 m². The kitchen is independent and fitted. The South-East exposure offers optimal sunshine. Heating is provided by reversible air conditioning in each room with additional electric heating. Hot water is produced by an electrical device. The interior, in very good condition, has retained the charm of its 1960 construction. For your comfort, the house is equipped with double glazing, electric roller shutters and air conditioning. Garage, motorized gate. It is located close to the village center, shops, restaurants, schools nearby. Argelès-sur-Mer is a peaceful, picturesque place rich in history. Nestled between the mountains and the Mediterranean Sea, it offers a palette of diverse landscapes, from secret coves to lush vineyards and from cork oak forests to mountain trails. Its narrow, winding streets are lined with traditional stone houses, which exude a rustic and authentic charm. The village is also known for its cultural festivals, local produce markets and tasty Mediterranean cuisine.
