House 25021 Pourrières

Quiet village house – South facing Situated in a charming village, in a quiet area and overlooking a small, sunnysquare, come and discover this village house in good general condition and offering great development possibilities. It currently consists of a kitchen with an existing, functional flue, allowing for the installation of a wood or pellet stove in the kitchen. A living room on the second level of the house. The house has double-glazed windows and a roof redone and insulated in 1990. Upstairs, you will find a bedroom with a private bathroom (shower, sink and toilet) and a second bedroom with a large attic space as well as a third bedroom on the top level. On the ground floor, a shed offers the possibility of being transformed into a small garage according to your needs. Renovation work is planned to reveal the full potential of this charming house.
