Mas Lorgues

Smartfinder Home - Superb location for this rare character property only 1km from the center of the vibrant village of Lorgues, in the Var.. Set on a hillside facing south-west, the reception rooms and almost all the bedrooms benefit from the stunning panoramic view over the countryside. On the ground floor, a veranda leads into the fitted kitchen, next to the large living room with a chimney and with many openings onto the terrace and pool area. Beyond the living room are a further 2 reception rooms currently used as offices, then 1 large bedroom with its own bathroom, and in another wing another large bedroom with a shower. On the first floor up 2 different stairs are a further 2 large bedrooms, each with its bathroom, all with the same south facing panoramic view. A more recent extension adds a further 2 bedrooms with their shower rooms en suite. Potential to extend and buy additional building land and a guest house, so also a superb development opportunity.
