Land 3773 Uzès

Situated in the heart of a pretty southern village with its first shops, this pretty 355 m² plot is enclosed, planted with olive trees and suitable for building your future home. At present, the plot is occupied by a large 70 m² garage, which could be used as the basis for your project: possibility of adding a room to this existing construction and a pretty pool, for example. Water and electricity are already connected to the garage. Mains drainage is in the street. There is also an automatic gate, a parking space and a borehole. A rare find in the heart of the old village centre.
