Perpignan

These atypical premises of 120 m<sup>2</sup> mix the modern and the old with its parquet floors and exposed stone walls. The entire layout has been designed to allow a team to work comfortably: several customer reception desks, a meeting room, a waiting room with sofa, tables and chairs, a kitchen area built into a wall cupboard for coffee break or lunch. Its strategic location in the heart of the city with nearby parking allows easy access for customers.
